Steve Rapp started riding on the street when he was 18-years-old. For years, he watched his close friend road race in Northern California and Rapp decided he wanted in. He converted his street bike into a race bike and began to race. In 2007, he had the biggest moment of his career when he won the highly-esteemed Daytona 200.

RACING HIGHLIGHTS

2007

- Rapp started the season with a win in the prestigious Daytona 200. He continued to ride well and earned second overall in the AMA Formula Xtreme point standings. He also finished fourth overall in the AMA Supersport class with two podium finishes on the year.

2006

- Rapp had eight top-10 finishes in AMA Superbike. He had only two races outside the top-10 in the AMA 1000 Superstock series.

2005

- Rapp was on podium for the California Speedway and Mid-Ohio races in AMA 1000 Superstock. He finished sixth-place at three races in the AMA Supersport class.

2004

- Rapp raced for two top-five finishes at Barber Motorsports Park and Virginia International Raceway in AMA Supersport. He also had a best finish of sixth-place in the AMA 1000 Superstock series.

2003

- Rapp raced in three different series during this season. In the AMA Supersport, he earned wins at Road American and Brainerd International Raceway.

2002

- While Rapp only raced part of the season, he was able to finish in the top-10 at Daytona International Speedway and Mid-Ohio.

2001

- Rapp raced in the AMA Superbike class with his top finish of fifth-place at Pikes Peak International Raceway.

2000

- Rapp focused solely on the AMA Superbike series and remained consistent. He finished in the top-10 in all but one race.

1999

- Rapp finished with two top-five finishes in the AMA Superbike.

1998

- Rapp earned his first professional career win for the 750 Superstock at Mid-Ohio and a second at Road Atlanta. He had only one race outside the top-five.
